Friendly Fires awarded North American Best Fireplace Retailer

March 2014 – Friendly fires is pleased to announce that they have been awarded the Best Fireplace Retailer in North America. At the annual Vesta Awards, held at the Hearth, Patio and Barbecue (HPBA) Expo in Salt Lake City, Friendly Fires was the first ever Canadian Retailer to win the award. “We would like to thank our suppliers, our staff and our customers,” said Brad Leonard partner at Friendly Fires to the packed crowd at the Salt Palace. “This is really an honour to be the first Canadian Retail Company to win this award.” Leonard received the award on behalf of his partner Alex Soubliere and their staff in Kingston, Peterborough and Cobourg.

Friendly Fires was nominated by a number of Canadian and American manufacturers and distributors for their outstanding sales and service. Friendly Fires was chosen based on their showrooms, customer service, staff as well as overall business practices by a panel of industry experts.
